HFTROCKS.com Productions & industry favorite HOT FOR TEACHER are "blazing new trails" as the lead in putting together the new "Roll In & Rock Out" drive-in-style "LIVE concerts in Northern California. The ONLY "LIVE music for hundreds of miles in every direction. This industry leading model is a "Best Practices", socially distanced, mask wearing phenomenon that is selling out consistently!

With an uncanny knack for channeling both David Lee Roth and Sammy Hagar, singer and bandleader Randy Monroe, belts out Van Halen's powerful vocal rants and irreverent lyrical sound bites with the same volcanic intensity of the original recordings – all the while conjuring Roth's none-too-serious, get-all-the-girls-dancing, "F — yeah this is real Jack Daniels" party vibe or "Are we havin' fun yet?" Sammy Hagar lifestyle. (Fun Fact: as with the band's name, Monroe is also an award-winning science teacher.)

The ripping, virtuosic guitar parts of Eddie Van Halen as played by 6-string professional, Tommy Merry, gets even the most finicky Van Halen fans cheering in awe and playing their own air guitars. Tommy joins HFT in 2019 after a valiant stint with famed rock singer Davey Pattison's Gamma; whose resume includes many of rock's iconic guitarists from Ronnie Montrose to Robin Trower to Michael Schenker. From his 2018 work in The Red Rocker Experience, Tommy's commitment helps to blend both eras and sounds for the "Best of Both Worlds Show" and has been instrumental in the development and implementation of the Red Rocker's aspect of the Van Halen catalog with the addition of some of the biggest hits from the Sammy "Van Hagar" era canon.

Our four-string super hero not only brings the Michael Anthony thunder on bass, but he also amazingly nails Anthony's near-inimitable ultra-high vocal harmonies – a crucial sonic element of every Van Halen song. He is also an important leader in the production of the music we deliver.

HFT's pounding drums are kept fresh and tight by percussion genius and harmonious backing vocals that evoke Alex Van Halen's skin-bashing with an authenticity you can see and feel. From the classic intro to the band's theme song, "Hot For Teacher", to the iconic, "Ain't Talkin' 'bout Love" and melodic Hagar era hits including "Finish What Ya Started"!

No other Van Halen tribute performs the technically complex music of Van Halen better than HOT FOR TEACHER, perhaps that's why HFT has also been joined onstage by other rock legends Pat Travers, Brad Gillis (Ozzy, Night Ranger), Joel Hoekstra (Night Ranger), and Joey Alves (Y&T), and has shared the evening's stage with many greats including Eric Martin (Mr. Big), Peter Frampton, Dennis DeYoung (Styx), Nazareth, Great White, Hollywood All-Stars' Chas West (Bonham/Lynch Mob), Carlos Cavazo (Quiet Riot), Jimmi Bain (Dio), Blues Traveler, Creedence Clearwater Revisited, Y&T, Night Ranger, Tesla, and countless others!

When HOT FOR TEACHER was invited to perform for Michael Anthony's bass guitar dedication at San Francisco's Hard Rock Cafe in 2003, the already frenzied crowd was pushed into sheer delirium when the mighty bassist stepped on stage with HOT FOR TEACHER and ripped through a white-hot set featuring "Unchained", "Dance the Night Away", "Panama" and countless other Van Halen hits. The band even performed VH II's "Women In Love" in which afterwards Anthony jovially exclaimed, "Man, I haven't done that song in twenty years [1983]!"

HOT FOR TEACHER was featured in the book, "Everybody Wants Some, the Van Halen Saga" by Ian Christie,

FHM magazine, The Contra Costa Times, The San Francisco Chronicle, The San Jose Mercury News, and other related papers. In 2008, HFT was voted Best Tribute Band in the SF Bay area by the East Bay Express and became the first tribute ever invited to perform at the prestigious NAMM Show (the National Association of Music Merchants in Anaheim, CA) and is now often an annual part of the event. "Some people go to the party, we ARE the party!"

In 2014, HFT performed a benefit for the wife of Sammy Hagar's Wabo drummer, David Lauser, aptly named "Liza 2.0". The band played a full Red Rocker Experience set with David that included Brad Gillis and Josh Ramos on stage.

HOT FOR TEACHER also appears on local performance market television programming including Comcast's CC Rocks and Reality Check as well as a variety of television advertising commercials. HFT is also a regular on radio stations such as San Francisco's 107.7 "The Bone", San Jose's 98.5 KFOX, and Los Angeles' KLOS 95.5 (on the syndicated Mark and Brian Show), and in a multitude of other rock radio markets spanning America from Virginia Beach to the beaches of Hawaii.

So, if one helluva good 'ole time is what you're after, then you ought to come out, shake it, "Jump", and "Dance the Night Away" to experience the "Best of Both Worlds" with HOT FOR TEACHER, the Van Halen Experience!

*Band Note: In 2007, former HFT guitarist Terry Lauderdale who co-founded the band with Randy in 1999, handed over guitar duties to Jude Gold, current guitarist for Jefferson Starship when he stepped down to record and tour Europe with heavy metal powerhouse Heathen and then pursue his own original projects.
